DIRECTOR’S NOTES

On October 14, 1930, a 21-year old ex-secretary from Astoria named Ethel Zimmerman, made her Broadway debut belting out a new Gershwin tune called I Got Rhythm. That night, the song and the girl (who felt her family name was too long for the marquee and shortened it to Merman) made history.

Well, tonight I invite you to keep your eyes open for the people on our stage who are going to make history. Save this program, because there are names in it that are sure to become major drawing forces in the international field of entertainment, both in front of the footlights and behind them.

In these times, I feel it is more important than ever to create and support vehicles of hope where love conquers all and the solution to any big problem is “Let’s put on a show!”

There are countless people to thank for helping me ‘put on this show’... a phenomenal cast who are as talented as they are nice, an exceptional crew, a totally ‘above and beyond the call of duty’ creative team with special nods to Jimmy White and Alan Poaps, and most importantly, to Rod Maxwell.

As most of you know, this musical will mark the end of Rod’s career of mounting mainstage musical productions at Theatre Sheridan. It is the end of an era — Rod’s era of glitter and glamour, of style and show tunes and incessant laughter. It’s fitting that his final show selection for Theatre Sheridan will give you all of that tonight.

Who could ask for anything more?
