Notes from the Producer

The production of Edward Bond's The Sea brings our 1984-85 season to a close. On behalf of the performers and staff of Theatre Sheridan, I would like to thank you for your patronage and support.

Plans are well underway for next year's season. We are considering such productions as A Little Night Music, On the Twentieth Century, Don't Drink the Water, and Guys and Dolls, to name a few.

Our final choices will be announced in August, with season's ticket sales beginning in October. We look forward to your support, and know that you will enjoy our 1985-86 season.

Dear [Signature]

The Production Staff wishes to express its thanks to the following:
Theatre London, Ron Cameron, Bill Little, George MacDonald, Beaver Foods, the Design and Printing Departments, Information Services, and our front-of-house and bar staff.

We regret that cameras and tape recorders are not permitted in the theatre during the performance.

Notes from the Director

The Sea is a delightful but poignant comedy set on the east coast of England in 1907. The action centres around the drowning of a young man and the repercussions, emotional and political, it has on the tight, inward-looking village.

It is not a play remarkable for anything more than its rational simplicity. In fact, shortly after The Sea premiered at London's Royal Court Theatre to tumultuous acclaim, Bond wrote "So the sea is a symbol of hope justified by constant new changes and opportunities. (It deals with) your moral involvement in society."

This play provides the performers with the double challenge of making their play both entertaining and thought-provoking.

Here's what the critics said about 'Barnum':

"Theatre Sheridan presents lavish musical show"
Kathy Yanchus, the Oakville Beaver

"If the students had nearly as much fun performing as we did watching, Theatre Sheridan can bask in the glow that follows a job superbly done!"
Jim Costley, the Burlington Gazette

"A simply stunning show"
Vic Hyde, the Burlington Post
