Our setting

The setting for our piece is a factory. The Krupp Factory is an actual factory in Essen, Germany. The company was famous for production of steel, artillery, ammunition and other armaments. It produced steel used to build railroads in the United States and to cap the Chrysler Building.

During the time of the Third Reich, once the Nazi Party came to power, the Krupp company supported the Nazi regime and employed slave labour in their factories. The company had a workshop near the Auschwitz death camp. The painting used at the beginning of our piece is a reproduction of Heinrich Kley’s The Demons of Krupp. It was commissioned by the Krupp family to demonstrate their creative forces at work. In light of their contribution to the Holocaust, it now conveys something much different to contemporary eyes.
