Theatre Sheridan would like to acknowledge that for thousands of years this has been and still is the traditional territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nations, Anishinaabe Nation, Huron-Wendat and the Haudenosaunee confederacy. Sheridan College sits on these lands and it is our collective responsibility to honour and respect those who have gone before us, those who are here, and those who have yet to come. We are grateful for the opportunity to be working on this land.

Thank you for your continued support of our students. We are excited to share with you several projects in collaboration with the Honours Bachelor of Musical Theatre Performance and Advanced Diploma in Technical Production for the Performing Arts Industry programs.

Twelfth Night

A Musical Adaptation of William Shakespeare's TWELFTH NIGHT
Concieved by Kwame Kwei-Armah & Shaina Taub
Music & Lyrics by Shaina Taub

Directed by: Marie Farsi

A musical adaptation of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. An empathetic, happiness-drenched and turned-upside-down Illyria, that celebrates and asks us to "see through the eyes of another, hear through the ears of somebody else."

TWELFTH NIGHT is presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals.

Marie Farsi - Director

Marie is an award-winning theatre maker and director primarily focused on the creation of new work. She has directed for and collaborated with some of the most innovative companies from across Canada, such as Crow's Theatre, Necessary Angel, the Stratford Festival, Newworld Theatre, Rumble Theatre, Porte-Parole and Théâtre La Seizième. Her theatrical interests are broad from staging classical texts to sketch comedy to contemporary puppetry to musicals to radically intimate performance installations. She is now embracing the new opportunities presented in film, with her animated short "Prométhée au féminin" which marks her successful debut in filmmaking (it's premiering at VIFF this fall 2021). Her work as a director has been described as trippy, intelligent and wildly inventive.

Marie is not afraid of risk, of bending physical space and theatrical conventions to offer a different point of entry into the arts for younger and more adventurous audiences. She is an artist with very playful conceptions of dramatic convention. She was recipient of the 2019 Ray Michal Award for Outstanding Body of Work by an Emerging Director, the 2020 Dora Award for Outstanding Direction in the Musical Theatre division, and the 2020 Toronto Theatre Critics' Award for Best Director of a Musical for her wildly successful Ghost Quartet. She was the Associate Artistic Director at Crow's Theatre for two seasons, and is also the co-founder and co-Artistic Director of the formally experimental company Babelle Theatre in Vancouver, which was the Company-in-Residence at the Arts Club for this past season 2020/21. More at mariefarsi.com

"I am very honoured and excited to be directing the 4th year students in the Public Theater's musical adaptation of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. I can't wait to conjure this empathetic, happiness-drenched and turned-upside-down Illyria, that celebrates and asks us to "see through the eyes of another, hear through the ears of somebody else."

Choreographer: Alyssa Martin

Alyssa Martin is a choreographer and director working and living in Tkaronto. Her works strive to melt the container of dancetheatre to offer unbridled romps through cheeky explosions of our consciousness. Alyssa founded her creative home, Rock Bottom Movement, in 2012, and the group has since been graciously recognized with multiple Dora Mavor Moore Awards and the Canadian Stage Award for Direction. Alongside her collaborators, she has created new work in residence at The Banff Centre, Canadian Stage, Toronto Dance Theatre, The Stratford Festival Lab and The National Ballet of Canada.

In addition to her work with Rock Bottom, Alyssa creates new work for other dance companies, independent artists, post-secondary students and collaborates in the theatre, film, musical theatre and opera realms. She recently premiered her first feature-length dance film, Bin Chicken, created as a commission with Toronto Dance Theatre and spent this past summer choreographing I am William at The Stratford Festival. Alyssa approaches her dance with an openness for spontaneity and a deep consideration for the collaborators and communities who come to play.

Rachel O'Brien-Music Director

Rachel O'Brien (she/her) is a Tkaronto-based music director and pianist born and raised in the We'kwampektik region of Mi'kma'ki, sometimes called Valley, Nova Scotia. She is proud to be finishing up her time as Paul Sportelli's Music Intern at the Shaw Festival after 2 years and 1.5 resilient seasons of theatre in a pandemic. Selected credits include: Holiday Inn, Elegies: a song cycle, Assassins: In Concert (Shaw Festival), Peter Pan: The Panto (Neptune Theatre), and Anne & Gilbert (The Guild).

Michelle Tracey-Set Designer

Michelle Tracey is a scenographer based in Toronto, Ontario. Her work spans scenic, costume, lighting and projection design within the fields of theatre, opera, dance, live events & installation art. Michelle earned her BFA from York University in theatre design and production, and she is a graduate of the Soulepper Academy under the mentorship of Lorenzo Savoini where she specialized in dramaturgical scenography. Michelle is also a trained wardrobe technician and has constructed costumes for numerous professional productions. Michelle is a founding member of Triga Creative, a collective of designers committed to ecoscenography, intergenerational artistic exchange and the development of new sustainable working models.

Barbara Rowe - Costume Designer

Barbara is a costume designer, wardrobe stylist and technician who revels in the challenge of working with different directors, actors and technicians in myriad disciplines. She has travelled across North America on Tour with Kids In The Hall; collaborated on television shows such as Shadowhunters (Netflix) and Titans (Netflix); and designed costumes for Phantom of The Opera (Theatre Sheridan). Barbara has enjoyed many years of working in the Costume Shop, teaching and learning with the Technical Production Students at Sheridan College since 2002.

Selected Design Credits; Alton Brown Live: Eat Your Science (North American Tour), Little Women (Theatre Sheridan 2014 & Theatre New Brunswick 2015), The Witlings (Theatre Erindale 2014), Eternal Hydra (Crow's Theatre 2009 - Dora Mavor Moore Award nomination for Outstanding Costume Design) (Factory Theatre 2011), The Glass Menagerie (Can Stage 2005 & The Saidye Bronfman Theatre 2002).

Ben Malone - Sound Designer

"Toronto resident, Hamilton native, and a graduate of the Theatre Arts – Technical Production program at Sheridan College, Ben is in his second decade as an audio specialist in a variety of disciplines. Ben's career has seen him serving as systems engineer for medium to large scale concert touring, sound designer for musicals with regional theatres and colleges in Ontario, as well as a touring FOH audio engineer and tour manager working with a handful of Canadian and international artists."
